Naples, November 10, N. S.

THE King of the Two Sicilies arrived at Gaeta the 4th Inſtant, where he ſtaid with the Queen three Days, and on the 7th in the Evening their Sicilian Majeſties returned to this Capital amidſt the Acclamations of the People and great Demonſtrations of Joy. By Advice from Zante of the 26th of September, N. S. a French Man of War came into that Road the 18th, and the Captain ſent his Boats immediately on board a French Veſſel (which had been taken and left there as a Prize by Capt. Robert Saunders, of the Ruby Privateer,) cut her Cables, and towed her off under his Stern.

Rome, Nov. 14. N. S. On the 12th Prince Lobcowitz proceeded from Viterbo to Monte Fiaſcone, and arrived this Day at Orvieto, on his March, as is thought, to his former Poſts of Peſaro, Rimini, &c. on the Adriatick Coaſt. The Spaniards and Neapolitans, excepting the Neapolitan Militia, who have been ordered to march back to Naples, have followed the Auſtrians no farther than Viterbo. They have committed great Outrages and Damages in the Vineyards, &c. in the Neighbourhood of Rome, and plundered many Houſes, &c. On the 9th, the Marquis de l'Hopital, the French Miniſter, departed from hence on his Return to Naples.

Florence, Nov. 17. By our Accounts, Prince Lobcowitz was preparing on the 14th to decamp from Orvieto, on Advice that the Spaniards had turned off to the Right at Civita Caſtellana, with a Deſign, as it was ſuppoſed, to arrive at Foligno before him. It was expected that the Auſtrians would arrive at Perugia as laſt Night, but it was feared not in Time to prevent the Deſign of the Spaniards. When Prince Lobcowitz took that Reſolution, he diſpatched a Courier hither to acquaint the Great Duke's Miniſters, that in order to make more haſte, he deſired Leave to ſend his Artillery and Baggage thro' Tuſcany; to which an Anſwer was immediately diſpatched to inform him, that the Regency could not permit it, as ſuch a Step might be eſteemed contrary to the Neutrality, and that they feared the Spaniards might take that Pretence to follow the Artillery and Baggage, and perhaps ſeize them. The Orders ſent ſome time ago by the Great Duke to make Preparations to aſſemble his Troops in order to march towards the Confines of his State in Caſe it ſhould be neceſſary, have been lately repeated, and before the Execution of them, a Meſſage was ſent by the Regency to the French Miniſter and the Spaniſh Agent, to acquaint them that the Great Duke had ordered his Troops to be aſſembled and to march to the Confines, as his Highneſs would not permit either the Queen of Hungary's Army, or that of Spain and Naples to paſs thro' his State, which muſt occaſion great Prejudice to it, and to his Subjects, but that his Highneſs would perſiſt in the Obſervance of the moſt ſtrict Neutrality. The firſt Column of the Great Duke's Troops departed from hence this Morning for Arezzo. Thoſe at Leghorne were to begin their March likewiſe at the ſame Time; the whole Number between regular Troops and Militia will be near 4000 Men, and are to be diſtributed at Arezzo and Cortona, and the neighbouring Places. The Auſtrian Invalids arrived at Leghorne on the 12th, in 30 Tranſports, eſcorted by his Britannick Majeſty's Ships the Diamond and Kennington; the whole Number, with Women and Children, amounted to 3005. They were not intended to be landed at Leghorne, but ſmall Boats had been prepared to carry them to Piſa by the Arno, but as the Entrance of that River is frequently dangerous, the Weather had not by the laſt Letters permitted it. Thoſe poor People arrived at Leghorne quite deſtitute of Proviſions, and as the Sea was very high for two Days, many of them died.

Breſlau, Nov. 30, N. S. The King of Pruſſia is at this Time upon the Road, in order to return through Sileſia to Berlin. The Preſident Count Munchau was adviſed of it Yeſterday, and at the ſame Time received Orders to repair from hence to a Place on the Side of the Mountains of Sileſia, which will probably be Hirſchberg, there to wait for his Majeſty. The neceſſary Relays are ordered at Hirſchberg and at Schweidnitz. The Incurſion, which the Hungarians made laſt Week at Oppeln, has coſt the Pruſſians above ten thouſand Crowns.

Auſig, Dec. 1, N. S. As ſoon as the Combined Army in Bohemia had paſſed the Elbe, the King of Pruſſia ſent Orders to General Einſidel, the Governor of Prague, to ſhut the Gates of that Town, in ſuch a Manner however, that People might go into it, but not come out again. This Order was brought to Prague the 20th of November; but the next Day another came from his Majeſty, for the Garriſon to evacuate that Town, after having firſt of all nailed up the Cannon, and ſpoiled the reſt of the Arms which were in the Arſenal there. This was executed in a Hurry and privately, and it is reckoned, that upon this Occaſion above 20,000 Pieces of all Sorts of Arms were broken. The Powder for the Cannon, and other Warlike Stores were thrown into the Moldau, and at the ſame Time, the Pruſſians ſet fire to two Mines, which did not however do much Damage. Upon the 26th the Garriſon began to march out of the Town, taking the Road by Turſko and Welwarn, towards Melnick; ſome Hungarians thereupon thereupon took Poſſeſſion of it, whilſt others, together with ſome Auſtrian Huſſars purſued the Rear of the Pruſſians as far as Podelebe. Theſe laſt were to arrive either Yeſterday or this Day at Leutmeritz, from whence, according to ſome Advices they are to direct their March by Turnau, Trauſenau and Braunau towards Sileſia. By ſome Accounts they amount to 7000 Men, but others aſſure, that their Number is nothing near ſo conſiderable. Of the Sick and Wounded, who were at Prague at the Time of the Retreat of the Pruſſians, only thoſe were taken with them, who were leaſt ill, the others being left behind in that Town.

Bruſſels, Dec. 9, N. S. A Courier arrived here Yeſterday from Prince Charles, who ſays, that he paſſed through Prague the 2d Inſtant, where 2000 Pruſſians were made Priſoners a Day or two before; that the remaining Part of that Garriſon, amounting to about 8000 Men, were fled towards Leuthmaritz, without Order, Proviſions or Ammunition, having firſt nailed up both the Auſtrian and Pruſſian Artillery, and plundered about 200 of the principal Inhabitants of that City, and that ſeveral irregular Troops had been detached after them.

By the Principal Officers and Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Navy.

Theſe are to give Notice, that on Tueſday the 18th of next Month, at Ten of the Clock in the Morning, will be expoſed to Sale at this Office, in Purſuance of Orders on that Behalf, The Hulls of his Majeſty's Ships the Scarbrough Hoſpital Ship at Deptford, and Diamond at Portſmouth, with ſome Particulars, that are to be ſold with them. The Ships to be viewed at the Places where they now lie, between this and the Day of Sale, by ſuch Perſons as are inclinable to attend the ſaid Sale, and bid for them.
